Summer Term 2019

A note from the chair,

With the summer term, some sunshine (hopefully), sports days and of course the summer fair, this year we have decided to break with tradition and hold the summer fair after school on Friday 21st June.

There will be face painting, a bouncy castle, games to suit all ages and the PTFA bric-a-brac, uniform sale cake stall and book swap. We'd like to thank Waterstones Bookshops who have donated lots of books and gifts to the book swap. So bring along a book or 2 to swap on the 21st.

We have less non-uniform days this year than in previous years due to class trips, but please continue to bring in any bric-a-brac you may have. John has kindly agreed to collect it at the gate everyday from now on the run up to the fair.

As always, we welcome cake donations on the day. Please leave them with the office or drop them off to the stall in the afternoon.

Volunteers are always required to make this event a success and I would like to thank in advance all the teachers and staff coming along to help.

If you or a family member would like to help run a stall, please get in touch with any of the PTFA.

We look forward to seeing you on the afternoon of Friday 21st.

Hannah Givertz.

Table Top Sale at the Summer Fair

This year we are having table top sale.

Have you got a craft or something to sell?

Tables will cost £10 each, all of which goes to the PTFA.

Everything you make is your profit to keep or donate.

This is a great opportunity and space is limited! So if you are interested, please get in touch with Hannah Givertz, hannahgivertz@gmail.com
